Memories to last a lifetime

1. They're free! The hotel, car or cruise line pay the agent a commission to book their service but usually do not pay the agent until AFTER you have traveled. The agent only gets paid if you make your reservation through them and then take your trip!
2. Save you money - Travel agents know the trends, promotions, how to bundle and they know good pricing when they see it.

Stress Free Planning

3. Save you time. How many hours will you spend on the internet researching and reading the reviews? Why not have a professional who is trained do the work for you.

4. Stress free planning and peace of mind. A travel agent takes in your wants, needs and budget then turns around to provide you with best options for you. You also have peace of mind knowing you have someone to answer questions and help you along the way.

CUSTOMIZED PLANNING

Travel with us to the land of the

5. Customized Planning-personalized, tailored to you. Your Travel Agent will ask you qualifying questions to help you find the perfect vacation to meet your needs.

6. You're able to put a deposit down and make payments towards your vacation instead of paying in a lump sum.

NEGOTIATED RATES

7.Travel Agents have access to negotiated rates and perks that the general public may not.

DESTINATION KNOWLEDGE

8. Destination Knowledge. Your travel agent may have first-hand experience with your destination to give you insider tips on restaurants, shopping and tours you may enjoy.

9. Product knowledge. Your travel agent has likely toured the property and/or completed trainings for the resort or hotel you are staying at.

10. A Travel Agent is an advocate for you prior, during and after travel. Your travel agent has industry connections with the tour supplier, resort, airline, or destination. They can make special requests on your behalf and assist you during travel if the need arises. They can provide follow up assistance after travel if something did not go as planned. Hotels, car rental companies, and airlines highly value travel agents business and will do what they can to keep the travel agents' business to protect future sales from the agent.

11. Consistency of service. You will work with the SAME person throughout your experience. NO CALL CENTER
